In the High Court of Punjab and Haryana, Chandigarh.

CWP No. 1053 of 2007

Date of Decision: 23.01.2007

Kapil Dev

....Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana and others.

....Respondents.

Coram:- Hon'ble Mr.Justice J.S. Khehar.
Hon'ble Mr. Justice S.D. Anand.

Present: Mr. Sandeep Kotla, Advocate for the petitioner.

J.S. Khehar, J. (Oral).

The petitioner, through the instant writ petition, has challenged the action of the respondents in allowing temporary booths/khokhas at the bus stand of Haryana Roadways, Panipat. This, according to the learned counsel for the petitioner, is in clear violation of the draft revised comprehensive policy guidelines regarding allotment/auction of shops/booths etc. at the bus stands of Haryana Roadways.

Having heard learned counsel for the petitioner, it is not possible for us to accept the claim of the petitioner on the basis of the policy guidelines dated 5.9.2005 (Annexure P-1) on account of the fact, that they are merely “draft” revised comprehensive policy guidelines. Even otherwise, it would be pertinent to mention, that the petitioner approached this Court on the same cause of action on an earlier occasion, by filing Civil Writ Petition No.11413 of 2006. The aforesaid writ petition was disposed of on 27.7.2006, by requiring the General Manager, Haryana Roadways, Panipat, to pass a detailed speaking order while disposing of the representation made by the petitioner, wherein, the same relief had been sought. In furtherance of the order passed by this Court on 27.7.2006, in Civil Writ Petition No.11413 of 2006, the General Manager, Haryana Roadways, Panipat, has passed a detailed speaking order dated 12.1.2007. The order dated 12.1.2007 has not been challenged in the instant writ petition.

In view of the above, we find no merit in this petition. The same is, accordingly, dismissed.
